

Arbikie £3.40

All of the Arbikie products from the vodka to the gin use ingredients freshly grown on their own farm in Arbroath.

Kirsty's : Uses potatoes to make the base spirit. To embody elements of the land and sea it uses only juniper, sea kelp, Carline thistle and blueberry from the east coast of Scotland Kirsty's Gin is best served with Fever-tree tonic and lime.

AKs: This was made for the farms father. It uses the wheat based white spirit as its core, and is beautifully flavoured with honey, black pepper, cardamom and mace. This is excellently paired with ginger ale.

Blackwoods £3.50

A short batch gin using botanicals from the Shetlands, as each year's harvest is determined by the plants on the islands. It is predominantly flavoured with juniper, coriander and lime, giving it lovely light citrusy notes. Enjoy with a sprig of thyme and Fever-tree Mediterranean tonic.

The Botanist £3.80

As the name suggests this is a floral and herbaceous gin. It is made with 31 botanicals, 22 of which are native to the Isle of Islay where this is made. These include gorse flowers, Hawthorne flowers, red clover and water mint. Best served with tonic and lemon.

Caoruun £3.70

From Speyside Caoruun is made with pure grain spirit. It is lighter on the juniper, and has a sweetness, warmth and fruity flavour, from the five botanicals of rowan berries, heather, dandelion, bog myrtle and coul blush apples. Best served with tonic and a slice of apple.

Daffy's £3.80

Distilled in Edinburgh this is a fresh tasting gin uses the classic flavours of juniper and coriander seeds with the complexity of Lebanese mint and rare variety lemons. Enjoy with tonic and a generous squeeze of fresh lime.

Eden Mill £3.70

Made in St. Andrews. This gin has a very clean and sweet taste. There is spice from the juniper and green pepper, dry notes in cranberry and sea buckthorn, and the final mellow flavours of citrus, lychees and pear. Enjoy garnished with orange or lemon.

Edinburgh Gin £3.30

This award winning gin is distilled in the shadow of the castle. With a deliciously creamy flavour from its eight different botanicals including milk thistle, heather and pine, enjoy it with a slice of orange and Fever-tree tonic.

Edinburgh Seaside Gin £3.50

Distilled with foraged botanicals such as scurvy grass, ground ivy and bladderwrack, spiced with grains of paradise coriander and cardamom. Seaside started life as a limited edition, it is now a star of the permanent range. Best served with lime and elderflower tonic.

Hendrick's £3.60

With its distinctive apothecary style bottle, Hendrick's originates from Girvan, Ayrshire. It uses rose petals and cucumber alongside the traditional botanicals creating a very refreshing gin. Best served with cucumber and Fever-tree tonic.

Pickering's £3.50

Distilled in Summerhall, Edinburgh, from a recipe found on a fragment of paper from 1947. This bold and refreshing gin gives flavours of citrus and juniper before giving way to warming cardamom, coriander and clove. Best served with tonic and pink grapefruit

Rock Rose £3.50

Made in Caithness, this floral, citrusy and fruity gin uses 18 botanicals including juniper from Italy and Bulgaria along with five locals, including sea buckthorn, rowan berries and rose root. Best served with a slice of orange and a Fever-tree tonic.

Shetland Reel Ocean Sent £3.50

From Shetland's only distillery this gin is inspired by the islands themselves and Ocean Sent uses Bladderwrack nutritious seaweed gathered from the rocks of the Shetland coastline.

William Kerrs Borders Gin £3.50

New to the market from July 2018, this gin is from the Borders Distillery, the first Scotch whisky distillery since 1837. Celebrating the botanist William Kerr who came from Hawick, this gin is smooth with flavours of citrus and spice against a fruity malt backdrop. Served with Mediterranean Fever-tree tonic & slice of orange or with a twist of lemon with tonic & ice.

Bombay Sapphire £3.40

Flavoured with botanicals from Tuscany, Italian orris, cassia bark, Spanish almonds and West African grains, Bombay's name derives from the time of the British Raj in India. Best served with lime and tonic.

Bullards Norwich Dry Gin £3.60

This award winning Gin uses the exotic Tonka bean to give it a lovely nutty, sweet spice vanilla flavour. Delicious enough to be drunk straight or on ice but equally lovely with a slice of orange and a fever tree tonic.

Bullards Strawberry and black pepper gin £3.60

For those who love strawberry season and feel it should last all year, this is a good way to enjoy gin and that summer flavour.

Copperhead £3.90

A Belgian gin, made with a selection of five botanicals including; orange peel, angelica and coriander. Allegedly named after Mr Copperhead, an alchemist who was searching for the elixir of life who, along the way, produced the recipe for this refreshing gin! Best served with a slice of orange.

Gordons £2.65

Conceived by a Scotsman in 1769 and brewed in London, this is one of the most iconic gins in the world. Best served with the traditional lime and tonic of your choice.

Elephant Dry Gin £3.80

Help the elephants whilst enjoying a drink. Distilled in Germany with fourteen botanicals that include some fascinating African ingredients including; baobab, the buchu plant, devil's claw and African wormwood. Best garnished with a slice of apple.

Gin Mare £3.70

A fabulous Spanish gin inspired by Mediterranean flavours. It is produced in a converted chapel in the small town of Villanova. Using botanicals that include arbequina olives, thyme, basil and mandarin, it is modern, herbaceous and a touch savoury. Best garnished with basil or rosemary.

Martin Miller £3.40

Using the purest Icelandic water this is a very summery gin. Crafted with juniper, coriander, angelica root, orris root cassia bark cinnamon and orange peel, it has a clean smooth citrusy and spicy flavour. Best served with Elderflower tonic and strawberry.

Larios £3.30

A Spanish gin made with 12 botanicals that are distilled five times, including juniper, nutmeg, angelica root, orange peel, lime and orange blossom. Larios gives a dry finish with a delicate floral aroma. Best served with orange peel and tonic.

Roku £3.60

This is the first Gin out of Japan. It blends the classic juniper with Japanese botanicals to represent the seasons. Sakura leaf and flower (spring) Sencha and gyokuro teas (summer) sansho pepper (autumn) and the fine citrus finish with yuzu peel for winter. Best with tonic and lemon

Tanqueray £3.60

A very popular gin. One of the top 10 selling gins in the world. It is made with only four botanicals but the recipe is a very closely guarded secret. A classic which is best garnished with lime or orange peel.

Tanqueray 10 £3.90

This classic citrusy full bodied gin is clean and zingy and a firm favourite. Best served with lime and fever tree tonic.